

Did you miss your smear test?

Would you like to try a new home test for cervical screening?

Researchers at The University of Manchester are testing whether collecting urine or vaginal samples at home will encourage more people to be screened.

If you are late for your cervical smear by 6+ months, and want to find out more, please get in touch. Simply scan the QR code or email aces@manchester.ac.uk

More information on our website:

//sites.manchester.ac.uk/aces-choice
https://

